

Felton Conservation Land

This area of 58 acres includes different habitats. The Majority of the land is field, with wooded areas in between and it even includes a red maple swamp. It is ideal for bird watching, hiking, cross-country skiing, snow shoeing and horseback riding.

Felton Conservation Land

Copyright © 2004 City of Marlborough, MA.
ALL RIGHTS RESERVED WORLDWIDE. No part of this publication may be reproduced, stored, transmitted, or otherwise used in any form or by any means, electronic, mechanical, photocopying, recording, or otherwise, without the prior written permission of the publisher.

Map created by:
Nicole Halper, Conservation Commission
Nathaniel Bowen, Geographic Information Systems