

Mount Ward Conservation Land

This is 74.65-acre site that includes some of the greatest elevation changes of all the conservation lands. The trail loops from an easement all the way to the top of Mt. Ward and back down again. At the summit, take time to examine the large Maple tree that dominates the area.

Explanation

- Trail
- Property Lines
- Water
- Pond / Stream
- Wetland
- Parking Area

Mount Ward

Copyright © 2004 City of Marlborough, MA
 ALL RIGHTS RESERVED WORLDWIDE. No part of this publication may be reproduced, stored, transmitted, or disseminated in any form or by any means, electronic, mechanical, photocopying, recording, or otherwise, without the prior written permission of the publisher.

Map created by:
 Nicole Halper, Conservation Commission
 Nathaniel Bowen, Geographic Information Systems