Philosophy

"To be good is not enough when you dream of being great."

Designed and implemented personally by me, this is a program that will be fun, challenging, and second to none.

The program will provide an opportunity for players of all abilities to enjoy a curriculum with an equal balance of technical and tactical preparation.

As a National Team and Major League Soccer player, I approached each game and practice with pride and an unmatched professionalism. My programs carry the same distinction.

I have assembled a coaching staff who truly enjoys teaching the game to young players of any level. They all share a vast amount of soccer knowledge as well as coaching experience and relish the opportunity to pass their experience on to you.

See you this summer...
