

Felton Conservation Land

This area of 58 acres includes different habitats. The Majority of the land is field, with wooded areas in between and it even includes a red maple swamp. It is ideal for bird watching, hiking, cross-country skiing, snow shoeing and horseback riding.

Explanation

-  Trail
-  Pond / Stream
-  Trail Head
-  Parking Area

