

We are helping our members with a cancer diagnosis

No one wants to be a statistic, so it's comforting to know that you have PinnacleCare on your side when you receive a cancer diagnosis. We help you navigate the healthcare system and explore treatment plans and options so that you can make informed decisions about next steps and ensure the best possible health outcome.

Read how PinnacleCare made a difference to these members:

Rebecca says... "My care advisor has continued to work with me as I walk through my second cancer journey. She helped me not only schedule appointments but obtain second opinions when necessary. She responded to me with either email or phone calls which have been very much appreciated."

Raul says... "My care advisor did an amazing job to help me work through the medical, emotional, and mental aspects my cancer diagnosis second opinion. She was caring and compassionate which is exactly what I needed. Having her on my team gave me the support I needed to get a second opinion without consuming a lot of my time. This allowed me to focus on my mental and emotional health even more. Thank you!!"

Marjorie says... "From beginning, middle, and end, my care advisor was fantastic. She explained the entire process, facilitated all of my appointments, and followed up on every aspect of this particular issue. Bottom line, based on my care advisor guidance and coordination with the hospital, this issue is completely and successfully resolved."
