BIG News on Our BIG Move!

In this issue we have big news, indeed! In August, we will be closing the temporary library in the Walker Building, and relocating to our newly renovated and expanded library at 35 West Main Street. Read on for information on our anticipated timeline, and what to expect while the library is closed.

Thursday, 8/3 by 5pm: Last chance to place holds for pickup at the Walker Building. (You may continue to place holds for pickup at other CW MARS libraries.)

Friday, 8/11 by 5pm: In preparation for the move, this will be the last chance to pick up holds, reserve and pick up museum passes, and return materials to the Walker Building. Remember, you're always welcome to borrow and return materials at all other CW MARS libraries.

Due dates for all circulating Marlborough items will be extended.

September: The newly renovated library at 35 West Main St. opens to the public. (Stay tuned for updates!)
