Library Construction Update

The library construction site has undergone many changes in the past month. One exciting change is that fireplaces have been uncovered in both rooms of the historic Carnegie Building. They will remain uncovered in the new design.

To view drone footage of what things looked like "before" demolition began, click the link posted on our "Building News" webpage here. We'll take more videos as the site changes.

Make Your Own

Do you want to make a sweet, decorative gingerbread house for the holidays? Join Ms. Mandy for this fun, virtual event. Supplies and step-by-step instructions will be provided. Please pre-register here.
