

APRIL 6, 2020

Weekly Digest

learn, play, and explore from home

Hello there! We miss seeing you at our events, in our halls, and at our desks. We hope that you are keeping safe and well. This weekly digest will be our way to keep you updated about library services and share our favorite resources for remote learning and fun.

While our physical building is closed to the public right now, we are focusing on creating virtual opportunities for you to learn, play, and explore. Read below to learn more about what we have going on, and please take advantage of all we have to offer!

THIS WEEK'S BOREDOM BUSTER

Check out Mass Audubon's free resources (like Nature Bingo) here and give them a try in your own backyard or neighborhood!

Introducing MPL's Virtual Programs

Daily digital content for children, teens, & learners of all ages!

Story times are fun for young and old! Join Ms. Kerry and Ms. Jennie on Tuesdays and Thursdays for virtual story times. Visit on other days of the week for LEGO and craft challenges, as well as special guest performers! You can find the full schedule here.

.....

Our Teen Librarians are posting something special for teens every weekday at 2 p.m. Soothing zen resources, book recommendations, writing prompts, DIY projects, and anime/manga fun. Follow our Facebook page or subscribe to teen program alerts to get these daily check-ins. Check out our full schedule here.

LIBRARY LINKS

Visit our website

April e-Newsletter

Library Closure FAQs

Staying Entertained at Home

We're always adding more links!

COVID-19 Resource Page

A collection of trustworthy information sources, government response, unemployment resources, and more.

Follow us on Facebook

CONTACT US

We can answer your questions Monday to Friday, 9 a.m. to 5 p.m.

(508) 624-6900

marlboroughreference@cwmar.org

